

My husband and I travel by car extensively for business. We rely on uninterrupted weather and traffic information directed to whatever locale we are in from city to city, state to state. With XM Radio this need is fully met ! This would not only deprive me of the benefit of XM's first amendment rights but hamper our commercial trade.

This must not happen !!